SELECT MISCELLANY

Mrs. Hamlet's Soliloquy.

To vote, or not to vote, that is the question;
Wether 'tis nobler to forego the suffrage,
And bear the arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against our sex's troubles,
And by opposing, end them? To live—to wed—
No more: and by a marriage say we end
The heartache, only to nurse the little ills
Women are heir to—'tis a consummation
Not for Joseph, if the Court herself doth know;
And that she doth, is most indubitable.
To vote–to act–to act, perchance a farce. Ay,
There's the rub; for by this act what fights may come,
When we have shuffled off our crinoline?
This makes us pause; this, too, is the respect
That makes calamity of womans suffrage;
For who will bear the kicks and cuffs of men
The opressor's fists, or lord's contumely,
Assault and battery, and the law's delay;
The insolence of bummers, and the spurns,
That patient woman from loafers take,
When to avoid it, she could, stay at home.
And use her bodkin? Who would muskets bear,
Or groan or sweat under a mechanic's life,
But for the pleasures of emancipation—
The rich Golconda, from whose gaping jaws
The flesh-pots yawn in tantalizing plenty?
But there's the after claps!! This puzzles the will,
And makes us rather bear the ills we have,
Than fly to the horrid inexpressibles.
Thus coward ce makes babies of us all;
And thus are petted suffrage resolution
Sicklied over the pale cast of fear;
And enterprise of glorious ballot stuffing
Must fade, alas, because our seffering sex
Dare not imbibe the soul inspiring rye,
To give us vim and action.

Poisons.

If a person swallows any poison whatever, or has fallen into convulsions from having overloaded the stomach, an inetantaneous remedy, most efficient and applicable in a large number of cases, is a heaping teaspoonful of common salt and as much ground mustard, stirred rapidly in a teacupful of water, warm or cold, and swallowed instantly. It is scarcely down before it comes up, bringing with it the remaining contents of the stomach, and least there be any remnant of the poison, however small, let the white of an egg or a teaspoonful of strong coffee be swallowed as soon as the stomach is quiet, because these very common articles nullify a large number of virulent poisons.

The Modern Seven Ages of Man.—All the worlds a stage and all the men and women merely players, some of them most confoundedly poor players, too; they have their exits and their entrances, but a large portion of them would rather have whiskey as a steady thing. And one man in his time plays many parts—right field, centre field, catcher, short-stop, etc. At first the infant, mewling and puking in its nurse's arms and yelling fire; and then, the school-boy, with his dinner bucket and whining morning face, creeping like a snail unwillingly to school, with sheepskin under his jacket, and then, the lover sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad fearfully and wonderfully made to his mistress's eyebrow, and his coat-tail pockets filled with confectionery; then a soldier, full of strange oaths and bugs, jealous in honor, sudden and quick in quarrel, seeking the bubble reputation even at the canon's mouth at $13, a month and found; and then, the alderman, with a bay window on his stomach full of wise sawsage and other things to eat, who charges $2 for marrying a man and kisses the bride without leave or license. The sixth age shifts into lean and slippered pantaloons, with or without ruffles, as the case may be; last scene of all that ends this strange eventful history is second childhood and mere oblivion, sans teeth, sans eyes sans everything except a wondrous faculty for lying about the hot summers and cold winters of his younger days.—Oil City Derrick.

Reserved Seats.

In traveling, one meets with many very selfish people, all apparently bent on enjoying themselves, even should they do so at the expense of other's comfort and happiness; among them countless women who insist on monopolizing two seats in a railway car under the pretense that one of them is engaged by an attendant gentleman, supposedly in the smoking-car for a brief interval. We saw two women of this sort rightly served a few days ago on one of our trips. For fifty miles or more they succeeded in warding off every passenger who sought the shady side of the car, and the seat in front of them was filled up with their baggage, while several passengers were trying to find comfortable places to stand. Finally, however, an uncouth looking individual quickly removed the baggage and turned the the seat. The astonished ladies paused in their conversation to each other and raised their hands as if in remonstrance, but it was too late; the thing was quietly and quickly accomplished, and the two germans who then seated themselves, seemed to understand no words or gestures. Public opinion in that car, at least, was with them.

On another occasion, when we entered a car, not a seat was available.

One person stood guarding four seats, and another two; the aisle was uncomfortably crowded. "This way' said the conductor, "room in the palace car for those standing." The engaged seats were at a discount at once, but the conductor insisted that they should be retained by their occupants, and all were made comfortable.

People should remember the golden, rule when traveling.

Perfectly Safe.

While an Abolition meeting was being held, years ago, in a log church in Michigan on Sunday, a thunder-storm of the most violent type gathered. While it was at its height, a minister who was very hostile to the movement leaped up and said that he regarded the tempest as an indiction of God's wrath for the desecration of his holy Sabbath day by such a meeting, and said the storm was so furious that he dared not depart. Sojourner Truth, who was present, rose, and pointing her finger at him, shouted, "Don't be afeered, honey; don't be ateered. You won't be hurt, suah. I kind 'o reckon, honey, that God's never heern tell o' you."

Why He Wanted to Close His Store on Sunday.

A few days ago a young man in business was greeted by one of the clergy in this city, and was congratulated on his new venture in business. In the course of the conversation the clerical brother expressed his opinion as not in favor of the young man keeping open on Sunday.

—"No," said the young man. "I don't want to keep open on Sunday, but will probably have to. I work hard all the week, and would like to shut up on Sunday, because it's the only day in the week that I can have to myself to go hunting and fishing."

The Clergyman moved on.—ROCHESTER POST.

CURRENT ITEMS.

It is perfectly natural that a man should see his mistake after he has made it.

Wilmington is the largest city in North Carolina. Its population is 17,605.

There is not much danger when it "rains cats and dogs" but when it Spitz dogs look out.

California's wool crop this year (spring and fall) will probably be not less than 35,000,000 pounds. The total value of it promises to be nearly double that of any preceeding wool crop.

The census of Tucson, Arizona, shows the population to be within a fraction of 7,000 inhabitants. Prima county will foot up about 24,000 being an increase of about 21,000 in ten years.

Commissioner Raum, who is making campaign speeches in the democratic sections of Maine, says the republicans will carry the state by 5,000 to 10,000 majority.

Hayes' Western Tour.

The telegraph brings the following details concerning the western route of the presidential party:

He will start from Washington for the far west on Thursday. His party will consist of the President, Mrs. Hayes, and two sons. General Sherman and one of his daughters and three others. Hayes' family will start over the Pennsylvania road, spend sunday at their home in Fremont, devote the next week to the reunion of the Presidents old regiment at Canton, Ohio, and by Sept. 1st will be joined by Sherman and the other members of the party and strike out west by way of Chicago and Omaha. They will proceed over the Union Pacific to Ogden, then over the Utah Central to Salt Lake city, where a brief stay will be made. From there they will proceed to San Francisco, stopping perhaps at Carson city and Virginia city. From San Francisco they will go by steamer to Portland, Oregon, and thence to Puget Sound and Walla Walla, Washington territory, where they will be the guests of General James W. Forsythe, Lieutenant Colonel of the First Cavalry, who is stationed there as commander. Returning to San Francisco the party will proceed over the Southern Pacific to Tuscon and will then penetrate Colorado by stage

The trip is expected to be finished by the 1st of October.

CORRESPONDENCE

SODA SPRINGS, IDAHO,
AUGUST 20th, 1880.

ED. ENTERPRISE:—Having noticed an article in the Enterprise published Aug. 12th, from the pen of my highly esteemed friend Billy Clemens in which he evidently charges me with having written an article, published some time ago in the ENTERPRISE, over the signature of C. W. Peck, I wish to simply state that it taxes my newspaper corresponding ability to its utcapacity to do my own writing much less meddling through a public journal with the petty affairs and differences of my neighbors. It is seldom I pay any attention to squibs fired at me from "Pop Guns" of such small caliber as the one above alluded to and would not now do so only to humbly ask pardon of Billy for having been appointed in connection with Wm. Peck of Gentile Valley, by the Honorable Board of county commissioners of Oneida Co. to look out and report on some route that we in our judgment might consider the most practible on which to locate and make a Co. road, leading from Gentile Valley to Soda Springs, and for not having reported Billy's judgment, instead of my own, on the same. Now Mr. ED., if you will do me the kindness to publish this article and it should have the desired effect, which is to obtain Billy's full and complete pardon, for having commited the atrocious crime of expressing my (not Billy's) opinion about a certain route on which to locate and make a County road, your name shall be stamped in my book of memory, I shall think of you by day, dream of you by night and pray for you for ever. And while in the declinining years, I shall ever deem it a pleasant duty to teach my children that you were the mediator through whom I obtained this forgiveness.

Not having but one of Noah Websters Dictionaries at my command I quits. David Wright.

Fool Friends.

Nothing hurts a man, nothing hurts a party so terribly as fool friends.

A fool friend is the sewer of bad news, of slander and all base and unpleasant things.

A fool friend always knows every mean thing that has been said against you and against the party.

He always knows where your party is losing, and the other is making large gains.

He always tells you of the good luck your enemy has had.

He implicitly believes every story against you, and kindly suspects your defense.

A fool friend is always full of a kind of stupid candor.

He is so candid that he always believes the statements of any enemy.

He never suspects anything on your side.

Nothing pleases him like being shocked by horrible news concerning some good man.

He never denies a lie unless it is in your favor.

He is always finding fault with his party, and is continually begging pardon for not belonging to the other side.

He is frightfully anxious that all his candidates should stand well with the opposition.

He is forever seeing the faults of his party and the virtues of the other.

He generally shows his candor by scratching his ticket.

He always searches every nook and corner of his conscience to find a reason for deserting a friend or a principle.

In the moment of victory he is magnanimously on your side. In defeat he consoles you by repeating prophesies made after the event.

The fool friend regards your reputation as common property, and as common prey for all the vultures, hyenas, and jackals.

He takes a sad pleasure in your misfortunes.

He forgets his principles to gratify your enemies.

He forgives your maligner and slanderer with all his heart.

He is so friendly that you cannot kick him.

He generally talks for you, but always bets the other way.—Col. Ingersoll.

THE BEST OF ALL

LINIMENTS

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

For more than a third of a century the Mexican Mustang Liniment has been known to millions all over the world as the only safe reliance for the relief of accidents and pain. It is a medicine above price and praise—the best of its kind. For every form of external pain the

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment is without an equal. It penetrates flesh and muscle to the very bone—making the continuance of pain and inflamation impossible. Its effects upon Human Flesh and the Brute Creation are equally wonderful. The Mexican

MUSTANG

Liniment is needed by somebody in every house. Every day brings news of the agony of an awful scald or burn subdued, of rheumatic martyrs restored, or a valuable horse or ox saved by the healing power of this

LINIMENT

which speedily cures such ailments of the HUMAN FLESH as Rheumatism, Swellings, Stiff Joints, Contracted Muscles, Burns and Scalds, Cuts, Bruises and Sprains, Poisonous Bites and Stings, Stiffness, Lameness, Old Sores, Ulcers, Frostbites, Chilblains, Sore Nipples, Caked Breast, and indeed every form of external disease. It heals without scars.

For the BRUTE CREATION it cures Sprains, Swinny, Stiff Joints, Founder, Harness Sores, Hoof Diseases, Foot Rot, Screw Worm, Scab, Hollow Horn, Scratches, Windgalls, Spavin, Thrush, Ringbone, Old Sores, Poll Evil, Flies upon the Sight and every other ailment to which the occupants of the Stable and Stock Yard are liable.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment always cures and never disappoints; and it is, positively,

Republican National Ticket.

[Election Tuesday, November 2.]

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES A. GARFIELD,
Of Ohio.
For Vice-President,
CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
Of New York.

Some action should be taken immediately by the Republican committee looking to the selection of delegates to the territorial and Judicial conventions to be held at Boise City on Sept. 18, we believe.

Secretary Sherman is in favor of paying the debt off rapidly.

Grant arrived last week at Galena and was heartily received.

The city of Reading Pa., is suffering intensely because of a lack of water. Whiskey still holds out though.

The democratic county ticket is before the people for their consideration. It is a fairly-to-middling strong ticket. but with just enough points of weakness in it to insure its defeat at the polls in November.

Conference.

The Church of Latter Day Saints will hold a Conference at the old school house in Oxford beginning on Sunday morning next.

Senator Sharon, of Nevada, has announced himself a candidate for re-election.

If Mark Twain should run for the Presidency he would be charged with stealing adam's watch at the time he was weeping over his grave.

Let Us Weep.

New York, Aug.30.—Irving Hall this afternoon sent to Tammany Hall a series of resolutions looking to and proposing a conference to adjust the differences existing. The communication was responded to by Tammany, Who appointed a committee of eleven to confer with a similar one from Irving Hall, on wednesday evening.

Main Given to the Republicans.

Washington, Aug.30.— There are indications that the Democrats have practically abandoned the contest in Maine, and this state of things is attested by the withdrawal of men and money from the canvass there, for more effective use in Indiana. Democratic speakers returning from Maine say, without qualification, that the fusion movement was a failure, and they have no hope of success. The contest will be continued simply by local speakers.

CASSIA COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The Jury in the case of James R. Dick charged with the murder of George W. Brandon on the 8th day of March 1880 rendered a verdict of not guilty at the same time submitting a request that the defendant be repremanded in open court. This was objected to by defts. atty, but the Court did expatiate in a few appropriate remarks deprecating the reckless use of the pistol and thereupon turned Mr. Dick over to the embrace of his wife and the congratulations of his friends.

In the case of George W. Riley charged with an assault with intent to commit murder the jury were unable to agree and were discharged and the case went over the term. This case grew out of the Dick—Brandon affray.

The case of Charles Barnes charged with the same offence went over the term on account of absent witnesses.

There was two civil cases on the docket. The People against A. J. Sweetzer for $2,000,00 taxes, was decided in favor of the defendant under a stipulation by the attorneys on both sides, that the defendant was not a resident of the county.

The case of Bascom, Robinson et al vs Thos. L. Arnold ejectment, was also continued for the term.

The china boys had a blow out over a defunct brother last week at Boise City. The Democrat says they had rousing good sort of a time.

Maj. Hay of the AVALANCHE has returned home from a trip to California much improved in health.

A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R. R.

IS THE GREAT CONNECTING LINK BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST!

Its main line runs from Chicago to Council Bluffs and Omaha, passing through Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Geneseo, Moline, Rock Island, Davenport, West Liberty, Iowa City, Marengo, Brooklyn, Grinnell and Des Moines, (the capital of Iowa) with branches from Bureau Junction to Peoria; Wilton Junction to Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Eldon, Belknap, Centreville, Princeton, Trenton, Gallatin, Cameron, Leavenworth and Atchison; Washington to Sigourney, Oskaloosa and Knoxville; Keokuk to Farmington, Bonaparte, Bentonsport, Independent, Eldon, Ottumwa, Eddyville, Oskaloosa, Pella, Monroe and Des Moines; Des Moines to Indianola and Winterset; Atlantic to Audubon, and Avoca to Harlan. This is positively the only Railroad, which owns, controls and operates a through line between Chicago and Kansas.

This Company own and control their Sleeping Cars, which are inferior to none, and give you a double berth between Chicago and Council Bluffs, Leavenworth, or Atchison for Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, and a section for Five Dollars, while all other lines charge between the same points Three Dollars for a double berth, and Six Dollars for a section.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining and Restaurant Cars that accompany all Through Express Trains. You get an entire meal, as good as is served in any first-class hotel, for seventy-five cents; or you can order what you like, and pay for what you get.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes (and the enormous passenger business of this line warranting it), we are pleased to announce that this Company runs its PALACE SLEEPING CARS for Sleeping purposes, and its PALACE DINING CARS for Eating purposes. One other great feature of our Palace Cars is a SMOKING SALOON where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Leavenworth and Atchison, connections being made in Union depots.
