Information Wanted.

Blind, Reg. Dec. 17, 1879—Will you be good enough to publish the following, and oblige a poor fellow.

Over twenty years ago, two of my brothers, Thomas and James Nutt, emigrated to Salt Lake City, since which time I have received but three letters from them, and I am very anxious to hear of their whereabouts.

They are between 40 and 50 years of age. My name, when they left, was Jack Nutt, and I was residing at Cheltenham, Gloucestershire. Any person able to furnish information of either of these gentlemen, or both, will confer a favor on Yours respectfully, ANN DOOL.

Please address: Mrs. Dool, Sick House, 15 Cooper Road, Hampton Road, Brixton, England.

SEND FOR VICE.

—Send five cents to James Vick, Rochester, New York, and he will send you, by mail, post paid, a copy of his beautiful illustrated Florist's Guide. It is a beautiful little book of sixty pages well filled with choice illustrations of flowers, plants, vines, and lawn and garden plats and ornaments.

"You must not play with little girl, my dear," said an injudicious parent. "But, my I like her; she is a good little girl, and I am sure she dresses as prettily as ever I do, and she has lots of toys." "I cannot help that, my dear," responded the foolish anti-American; "her father is a shoe-maker." "But I don't play with her father, I play with her, she ain't a shoe-maker."

This Lawyer's Advice—A widow went to a lawyer for advice about her deceased husband's will. "Yes, yes, I see," said the lawyer, looking over the document. "Oh, don't cry the widow, passing her handkerchief to her eyes. I know he was always so, but he's left me 'most everything, so don't let on 'prejud his money."

Stolen from the Track. Twenty cars were blown from the railroad track at Blackfoot one day last week. One car which contained Mrs. Sackett and her family of twin babies were left on the track, as good luck would have it.

One of the first duties of the good citizen is to aid as far as he can in supporting his country's paper, for that paper can do more to promote the moral, intellectual and material interests of his country than any other small other agency—Avalanche.

We are facts which have been trying to impress upon citizens of Owyhee County at an earnest into the county, and the launching of the Enterprise. Many of our citizens appreciate the fact that a newspaper is the life and strength of a town, and give it a cordial and earnest support.

While there are other men we think in their own minds, that they are good citizens, a benefited hundreds of dollars by the advent of the Enterprise, that barely suffice for one copy of the paper, and think themselves very generous in doing that much.

"On an 'futures contract give us friends the benefit of a few well digested thoughts upon the day of every good citizen towards fostering public enterprise.

Her late mother's will gives to the Enterprise the large share of the Chamber's fortune, the next going to Eugenia Lamb-ria-law, the Duke of Ailsa.

TERMS OF INTEREST.

The friends of William, income will be reduced $100,000 this year, by the hard times. The family will still keep the girls, however, and occasionally hire a man to chop wood and keep the sidewalk clear of snow.

William E. Vanderbilt distributed $20,000 among his poor relatives on Staten Island, and gave $1,000 to the pastor of the St. Moravian Church there on Christmas.

W. W. Coocoran, the well-known Washington millionaire, has once recovered from disease after his doctor and friends had given him up, his pallbearers had been selected, and every arrangement had been made for his funeral. He rallied, to the amazement of everybody, and so steadily got better that within two or three months he was going about on foot, and talking personally to his aids. He is now much stronger than he was before his illness.

A land agitator—A plow.

No woman ever refused to accept pictures from her photographer because they flattered her.

General Sherman is said to be the most patriotic theater-goer of all the public men in Washington.

My man (you hear) had a killed bull between his shoulders knows how it feels to reach after the unattainable.

Antor owns three thousand four hundred dwelling houses in New York city. This is besides stores and other buildings.

The New Haven Register says that when a man has rheumatism in his knees he knows the value of a gate without hinges.

"Deseret, let me correct your morals. You address me "My dearest Maria." Am I to suppose you have other dear Marias?"

Song of the sea man—"Shall we suffer from the river?"

General Burnside advocates Canadian annexation.

Senator Sharon pays a $30,000 tax on property in San Francisco.

There are five thousand trees in Joe Jefferson's orange orchard in Louisiana.

Emma Young, one of the daughters of Prophet Brigham, is an actress in the Bella Union at San Francisco.

A pretty shabby looking man walk into the office of a western newspaper, and approaching a man in a suit and top boots, who had his feet on a desk and his chair tipped back, and remarked:

"Are you the editor?"

"I am sir, but haven't time to talk. If you have anything to say, best it down to a stickful."

The visitor eyed him sharply for a moment, and then drew a seven-shooter from his pocket and advanced a step or two. The editor turned pale as death, when the other said:

"Don't be frightened, I shant hurt you. I am tired of life, but have no right self-respect to commit suicide.

Here, take this poem on Spring and this pistol and do your duty as a citizen, who loses law and a higher standard of literature.

His pistol was handed back, also the poem, and the visitor remarked as he stepped to the door:

"If I were rich and had everything necessary to make me happy, and should offer you an ode on Spring you would kill me, but now you are too mean to pull a trigger.

"Though I could come here and be quietly massacred, but I can't. You are the most contrary man I ever saw."

Then he marched out with solemn grandeur.

A Florida man, who owns 100,000 head of cattle, is a misery reduce living in a shanty that has neither a stove nor chimney. He sells his surplus cattle in Cuba. He seldom sees strangers and he hides his money in a hole in his head.
