MISCELLANY

FOOD FOR THE BEARS
Three More Goals Made Happy.

The other day a lady accompanied by her son, a very small boy, boarded a train at Little Rock. The woman had a very worn expression hanging over her face like a leaden weight, and her eyes were dimmed with tears. She was looking at the people who were passing by her with a look of intense interest. She saw a man who was looking at her with a look of intense interest. She saw a man who was looking at her with a look of intense interest.

THE BROTHERS

James A. Garfield, the next President of the United States, is a native of Ohio—born at Orange, Cuyahoga county, November 19, 1831. His father, a Quaker, owned and operated one of the largest saw-mills in Cuyahoga county, being situated on the banks of the Cuyahoga river in the city of Cleveland. He died in 1823, leaving a family of four children, of whom James A. was the youngest.
