Tending to Happiness and Longevity.

First study to acquire a composure of mind and body. Avoid agitation of one or the other, especially before and after meals, or while the process of digestion is going on. To this end, govern your temper—endeavor to look on the bright side of things—keep down as much as possible the unruly passions; discard envy, hatred and malice, and by your good upon the pillow of charity with all mankind. Let not your wants outrun your means. Whatever difficulties you have to encounter, be not perplexed, but only think what is right to do in the sight of Him who seeth all things, and bear without plinging the result. When your meals are solitary, let your thoughts be cheerful; when you are social, which is better, avoid disputes or serious arguments, or unpleasant topics.

A Dream of Sunshine.
New York, March 18.—The Sun's Washington special says it is well known in Washington circles that Grant will not short his tour in Mexico, and hurry back to the United States, by the urgent advice of those who have his career periodically in charge. They say it doesn't look well for him to seem to be unwilling to stay in his own country except when he is governing it on a large salary. It is believed that Grant will be nominated at Chicago does not mean strength at the Capital. It is admitted on all sides that Sherman is a failure. Blaine's weakness lies largely in his inability to get delegates from any New England States except Maine, and possibly New Hampshire. The opinion gathers momentum that after all and in some way or other the outcome at Chicago will be Elfin Washburne. It is safe to assume that not a few of the Washburnes think so.

Condition of the South.
Chicago, March 13.—Stephen A.
Douglas, Jr., delivered a lecture last night before the Young Men's Auxiliary Club, (Republican), on the social and political condition of the South, in which he made a very strong Republican speech. He related ten years' experience in the South which made him a Republican although born and bred a Democrat. He told striking tales of murders, lynchings, disregard of law, etc. He believed that North and South Carolina and Florida could be carried for the Republicans. He expressed a hope for and belief in the possibility of renewed fraternal relations born of mutual concession.

Treatment of a Cold.
A bad cold, like measles or mumps, or other similar ailments, will run its course of about ten days in spite of what may be done for it, unless remedial means are employed within forty-eight hours after its inception. Many a useful life will be spared to be increasingly useful by cutting a cold short off in the following safe and simple manner: "On the first day of taking a cold there is a very unpleasant sensation of chilliness. The moment you observe this to go to your room and stay there; keep it at such a temperature as will entirely prevent this chilly feeling, even if it requires a hundred degrees of Fahrenheit. In addition, put your feet into hot water, halved deep, as hot as you can bear it, adding hot water from time to time for a quarter of an hour, so that the water will be hotter when you take your feet out than when you put them in it; then dry them thoroughly, and put on warm, tight woolen stockings, even if it be summer, for summer colds are the most dangerous; for twenty-four hours eat not an atom of food, but drink as largely as you desire of any kind of warm tea, and at the end of that time, if not sooner, the cold will be effectually broken, without any medicine whatever."

Colic in Horses.
A correspondent of the Massachusetts Poughkeepsie gives the following cure for colic in horses, which is convenient at all times and easily applied. He says he has never known it to fail. Sprinkle teaspoonful or more of fine salt on the back of the animal over the kidneys and loins, and keep it saturated for twenty or thirty minutes, or longer, if necessary. If the attack is severe, drench with salt water. Have a valuable bull, weighing 15 or 20 hundred pounds, which had a severe attack of colic a year ago last summer. Applied salt to his back as above stated, and, it being difficult to drench, we put a wooden bit in his mouth, keeping it open about two inches, and spread salt upon his tongue, which together with the salt upon his back relieved him at once, and within a very short time equilibrium appeared fully restored. I have for several years past successfully applied this treatment to the other animals in my herd.

"John, what odor is that?"
"Clover, love." "But that other?"
"Allspice, my beloved." "But isn't that your mother?" "Yes, apples, because it is." "Just one more?" "I wish my most beloved." "Well, if I if you'd only drink just little brandy in c.w., I think you would make a good 'niece pie."

CORRESPONDENCE

CHICAGO'S BUSINESS BOOM.
Grant the coming man!
Tazewell, Bross, Moore,
(From our own correspondents.)

Chicago, March 15, 1880.
(The spring season has opened here in the metropolis, and the garden city—the cragtop of the west, is like one vast beehive alive with breathing, moving beings. The streets are so crowded from morning to night, that one has to edge their way through as they can, through the dense throng.
Every branch of business is looking up, and some are hardly able to meet the demands made upon them.
The business men are looking forward to a long and an unprecedented prosperous season for all engaged in any department of trade or profession. Real estate, always quick to discern the condition of the business prospects, is steadily rising, and new buildings are going up in every part of the city.
The census takers will soon be at work, and when their work is completed, it is thought by many that the figures will be below 500,000 for the great prairie city.
I learn that some of the large business houses here have quite an extensive trade with Idaho, Montana and Utah. They might increase their trade greatly if they did their utmost more in the territorial papers.
During the few days of March I have felt the cold more than at any time during the winter in the Territory. From the warm spring-like temperature of February, the St. Peter's were lured into starting their vessels out, to the regret now, of many a sailor, that it is taxing upon the bowms of the vessels, every day, and nothing quicker than the tides and place of announcements. The "boards" present a very attractive list. Chicago believes with Illinois that "people must be made to work, they can't be made to rest, nor yet they can't be always working, they ain't made for it." The "Pirates of Penzance" have just closed a rather unsuccessful season at Havenly's.
This was intended for a comic opera play. It is a second edit on of Pinafore, or more correctly speaking a rebulet of it. It would have succeeded better, had more care been taken by the management in picking it on the stage with good actors. Chicago people are fastidious, and demand good acting.
Alice Oates (with the Aimee left out), the much married actress, with her Opera company, have been before the footlights at Havenly's with a very good patronage. Lotta, the bewitching, vivacious Lotta, will shake the sides of her lost of admirers at Mr. Vickor's during the week.
They have already commenced procedure for the National Convention, and nearly every room has been engaged in the principal hotels.
There appears to be but one opinion here, in regard to the result of this convention, and that is, that the great Captain, Statesman and U. S.
Senator, will be the nominee. That always ridiculous thin-term fares, seems to have died a natural death, men who were formerly blatant in crying out third-termism, would not now hazard their reputation for sandity by alluding to it.
It has been said however, and with a great deal of truth, that the result of a national convention is an uncertain as a horse-race. But the actors, and the results of the last convention, are such one good lesson—do not nominate a man unknown to the people and unapproved by them.
Chicago is waking up to the man-ing interests. They have a mining stock exchange here, and the stock of many of the best mines is played on the exchange. Many companies have their head office, or branch office here, among them is The Idaho State Hiring & Milling Company.

New companies are being organized here almost every week, and every one expects to develop a bonanza.

A new departure has been made by the Chicago Jockey Club, which is very judicious and will place, trusting on the same footing of respectability as running races. This departure is in putting up trotting stakes on the same basis as running stakes. Heretofore special parades have been generally run on for trotting money.
The races are to open on the 24th of July, and every arrangement is being made to make them the most interesting ever held in this city.

LATEST TELEGRAMS

Will Hill Not Sue.
Washington, March 17.—Mrs. Lockwood's statements so far have been outraged, and she complains that Senator Ben Hill will not sue her for defamation of character so as to give her a chance to defend herself.

Target Bill.
Washington, March 16.—The House committee on ways and means decided to devote next week to several questions involving changes in the tariff laws and hold daily meetings until they are disposed of.

Kellogg to be Ousted.
Washington, March 16.—The Senate elections committee by a strict party vote has decided to submit to the Senate resolutions declaring that Kellogg is not and should be, entitled to a seat.
The Republicans submit a minority report.

Seward Must Go.
Washington, March 16.—The President has requested the resignation of Mr. F. W. Seward, the United States Minister to China, and it is understood that if the resignation is not forthcoming, Mr. Seward will be removed.
In the meantime, the settlement of his accounts with the Department of State is suspended.

Tilden's Income Case.
New York, March 18.—In the Income tax cases against Tilden, the President and Cashier of the Third National Bank and other capitalists, have been summoned to produce their books showing transactions from 1862 to 1873 touching his pecuniary affairs.

Defendant.
Atlanta, March 18.—Sam Hoyle,

The Idaho Enterprise

THURSDAY, MAR. 25, 1880.

J. A. Straight, Editor

The Enterprise is for sale at the well-known store of Clutter & Dodge, at the Terminal of the Utah & Northern Railroad, and at St. Alexander's News Agency, at the post-office building, Ogden.

The citizens of San Francisco have at last had to pay 4 cents of allowing to the country, that manhood and the spirit of law and order, has not altogether died out in this city.

The business transacted on the 19th of March, was very quiet, while it is meting with our hearty approval, is tinged at the same time with the regret that the court could not have gone one step farther and returned him to detention.

Our country cannot afford to be controlled by an idle, mischief-making, property destroying, lot of communists, such as led to the riots of 1877, nor should it discourage the honest and industrious workman, no matter from whence he comes, merely for the purpose of endeavoring to the demoralize the spirit of the "Old Dominion" of the Pacific.

TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON

The editorial "Fair Play" from the Walla Walla Union on the same subject, which we have before our readers fully sustains our position, and that the Mass Convention which met at this place on the 16th inst. and elected delegates to the Territorial Convention, as well as a County Central Committee. Mr. B. F. White who styles himself Chairman of the Republican Central Committee, (and who apparently solicited that committee, so on so it appears, and we have inquired of all the leading Republicans in the county, and as the name of any other party ought to be excluded, that the people give him, and the irregular manner in which he and the little circle of gentlemen selected to be delegates at Malheur on the 10th, was not in accordance with that spirit of fairness which should control the Republican party in this county, we trust that our friends will see the necessity of coming down from the high to which we are led to before he unwisely assumed, and let the people have their say, as to who shall represent them in the Territorial Convention. We also believe that Mr. White is too good a friend of the people to care to disregard their wishes as well as the sound opinion of the substantial which we lay before him in support of the people's rights of representation in proper form.

A New in the Family

Washington, March 17.—It is reported to-day on what seems to be excellent authority, that very serious disagreements have arisen between the President and Secretary of the Interior. It is quite certain that not only in the Pinchbeck case but in other dispositions of patronage of the Treasury Department the President has greatly incensed Mr. Sherman that criticism was sure to be directed to the us or attempted use of the Treasury patronage to promote the political aspirations of the head of the Department, and that the President's own motto, "I will not be a party to any political maneuver," would not be held, even by implication as a consequence of such proceedings. This, it is said, has resulted in such a condition of feeling that Mr. Sherman's retirement from the cabinet is quite likely, and it is asserted by some of those who profess to be posted, that the date of such retirement will be immediately after the Chicago Convention.

Capital Notes

Washington, March 18.—The Treasury has ordered all interest on the public debt due April 1st paid without rebate, on and after Monday, March 22.

Female Suffrage

HARTFORD, Conn., March 18.—The House to-day, by a vote of 100 to 93 passed a bill for female suffrage, on license matters.

Indian Talk

New York, March 18.—General Clinton B. Fisk says in a talk, that the rebels really say, the plan of exchanging a reservation for lands in the Indian Territory will soon appear that several Territories lately agreed upon with the Utes, should not be adopted with other tribes of Indians at once. He believes that it could be applied to all reservation Indians in Oregon and Washington Territory, and that a similar compact between the Government and the Indians in the Indian Territory will soon appear that great relief will be felt by the white men.

Business Increase

New York, March 17.—For the first time after several months of continued decline, San Francisco's business forward with an increase in her shipping and mercantile trade, and the first time since the close of 1878, a decrease. According to a published table the following is the increase in port-to exchange over the corresponding week in 1879.

Table with 2 columns: City, Exchange. Includes Baltimore, San Francisco, New Orleans, etc.

Counting on the remarkable figures, the Public explains that a considerable part of New York's increase is due to the activity in stock speculation, and adds that it would be a mistake to reason so confidently as to the business of a city from the payments which have to be made within a single week. The returns of profits on the whole are very satisfactory and prospects condition favorable.

FAIR PLAY

We learn from a prominent Republican in Nez Perce county, that the Central Republican Committee of the county had to conclude to appoint the Nez Perce Delegates to the Territorial Convention, but after reading our article on the "machine politicians," made by Dr. Smith's committee in his county, they at once abandoned the idea and called a County Convention in the usual way giving the people of the county opportunity to select the Delegates to represent them in the Territorial Convention. Cassia county fell into line very quickly after the machine party, and will do the same by the Territorial Convention. The excuse that the Doctor's Committee gives for making the appointments instead of calling a Convention, is that the Territorial Convention of Washington Territory appointed her Delegates to the Chicago Convention without ever calling a Territorial Convention. This is the only way that the people of a Territory have in the selection of a President and the freest right of discussion and choice by the people, is what we have contended for.

The following is the way the Walla Walla Union talks to the Washington Territorial Republican Committee for usurping the power and appointing Delegates for that Territory: "It was a bold, high-handed thing for four out of a committee of nine members to do, to select Delegates in the National Convention and thus deprive the Republicans of the Territory of the only voice they are allowed to have in choosing the next President of the United States. Had the committee appointed the Delegates after the subject had been discussed by the people at the press and their desires to that end ascertained, there would have been less reason for objecting to the proceeding. But for the Committee to meet, under a general call, and appoint Delegates four months prior to the time set for holding the National Convention and that too without receiving the expression, so far as we have been able to learn, of a single prominent Republican in the Territory except those engaged in the proceeding, to say nothing of newspaper opinion, in favor of such action, is going a little too strong. When they find to this performance, as a vote of censure, the adoption by a rule of the whole committee, of a rule excluding proxies, unless held by residents of the Congressional Districts in which the members giving them reside, the republicans of eastern Washington become indignant at the outrages perpetrated on them. Let our Puget Sound friends remember that Time at last sets all things even. And if we do but watch the hour, there may yet be a haul of 1000. Which could evade, if unforseen, the patient search and vigil long of him who treasures up a wrong.

Gen. Grant left Vera Cruz yesterday, and will arrive at Galveston on the 21st or 22d.

The Utah people are now putting in their votes in Water Canyon, and all the wooden structures on the line between Ogden and Omaha are to be torn down in 1880 in spanning all the at once.

After being with only one and with a partner, it is a valid bill they are to.
