CORRESPONDENCE

Homestead Matters. TRYING ON A NEW COAT. Corvick, Idaho, Nov. 24, 1879.

Having seen a vile misrepresentation of facts concerning U. M. Bell and myself, published in the Idaho Enterprise by the (visiting) editor of that paper, I thought I would state a few simple facts, in answer to his charge, lest strangers might get a wrong impression of the matter and if you will be kind to let them appear in your columns, it will oblige me.

In regard to moving on the Eastwork place, at U. M. Bell, I had rent or lease said place, for 12 months from March, 1877. I rented the place to U. M. Bell, who was living on the place at the time he leased it to me after it had moved into the house I had rented with the place.
