MISCELLANY

OLD PETER'S CHRISTMAS
BY W. M. B. T. MONEY.

"Oh, what shall I do?" questioned Peter, as he looked at the clock. The hands were pointing to midnight, and he was alone in the room. He had just finished his dinner, and he was sitting at the table, looking at the clock. He had a strange feeling, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was.

It was a cold, clear night, and the stars were shining brightly in the sky. Peter had just finished his dinner, and he was sitting at the table, looking at the clock. He had a strange feeling, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was.

The night was very quiet, and Peter was alone in the room. He had just finished his dinner, and he was sitting at the table, looking at the clock. He had a strange feeling, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was. He had never felt like this before, and he was not sure what it was. Christmas Day.

Why we should keep it as a Holiday.

HOW WE CELEBRATE IT. Christmas is derived from two words, Christ the son of The Lord Jesus, who was born 1910 years ago today.

Members of the different christian denominations remember it much as the followers of Christ have done since his first advent on the earth.

Newspapers are rising up all over the Black Hills.

The Denver post-man get $90.00 a month and a gray uniform.

Population in Colorado increases in a ratio of ten to one, as compared with any other West State.

Petroleum, Oil, has a few with thirty horns. The horns are distributed along the backbone toward the tail.

So many distinguished men have visited Ogden this season that you can't name any one from California to Mr. N. S. of Paris, without the h. tel. ext. giving name, 'Oh, yes, he is here; just get him a coat.'

NEW YEARS' CALES.

Who are going to entertain, and how they will do it.

Our call list was swelled earlier from a large number of ladies as well as gentlemen of our city who propose to entertain in a magnificent style as becomes their position in the social world.

1. Dress yourself in the morning at the usual hour, by putting on a clean outfit.

2. Wash your face before dressing.

3. Eat your breakfast as usual.

4. Take a carriage or horse, or an Irish jaunting car, or a sled, or if you can't get either, take a walk to work, and start out.

5. Call on your lady friends about a time that is convenient for them.

ing fire finally fall into a happy slumber and dream of the nice things that they surely find in their little stockings, when they awaken.

The young maids and lads dance away the evening, and at midnight the veritable Christmas Eve approaches the scene, and is made the occasion of pushing and feasting, for remembrance of the night.

Christmas morn is ushered in by the ringing of bells and singing of sacred songs, both old and young marching to the great Churches, these to begin the festivities of the day by a sea-mat or choral praise in honor of the Saviour's birthday.

The day is passed in various ways, out at ways with Christian joyfulness.

All people upon the face of the earth keep Christmas as a festive day, but no nation on the globe enjoy it in as many different ways as the people of the United States.

DESCRIPTION OF OUR SAV.

Probably nearly everybody has a different idea of the personal appearance of Jesus Christ. The following description of His person is said to have been seen by John the Apostle, President of the State of Oregon.

"There I was at a time, in Jackson, a man of singular character, whose name was Jesus Christ, the barbarians esteem him their prophet, and his followers adore him as the incarnation of their true God."

"He is enveloped with some peculiar aura as well as the dead, from their graves, and a head every kind of disease with a word or a touch."
