SELECT MISCELLANY

NOT FIT TO BE KISSED.

"What did papa's mouth?" said a sweet little girl.
Her bright laugh revealing her teeth white as pearl;
"I love him, and kiss him, and sit on his knee.
But the kisses don't smell good when he kisses me!"
But mamma's—her eyes opened wide when she spoke—
"Do you like nasty kisses of 'tacco and sauce?"
"They might do for boys, but for ladies and girls!"
"I don't think them nice!" and she tossed her bright curls.
"Don't nobody's papa have 'tacco nice and sauce?"
"With kisses like yours, mamma—that's what I mean."
"I want to kiss papa, I love him so well.
But kisses don't taste good that have such a smell."
It's nasty to smoke, and eat 'tacco and spit,
And the kisses sin' good and sin't sweet not "bit!"
And her blossom-like face wore a look of disgust,
As she gave out her verdict, so earnest and just.
"Yes, yes, little darling! your wisdom has been "These kisses for daughters and wives should be clean!"
For kisses less something of nature of him, From mouths that are stained and unfit to be kissed.

Change of Scene.

Well need change, no matter how "contented" our dispositions may be.
A perpetual round of duties has a depressing effect both on the body and mind. It wears us day by day to see the same faces, view the same things, hear the same voices, smell the same odors, listen to the same platitudes. After long experience at home we know exactly how the tea will taste, how the siccals of beef is likely to be served up, and what probability there is of the mutton being tough, or the steak underdone.
We know, too, exactly what wife will say when we come home, and the exact tone in which she will say it.
When people live together day after day, month after month, and year after year, they find it difficult to find subjects for profitable conversation.
They are talked out. It is probably that the wife enlarges on domestic themes, and wears the husband with a recital of her small perplexities. This monotony can best be combated by change of air; for with this comes variation of scene, with that arrives change of thought, and with that, again, start up new trains of ideas and expansion of mind.

Learning to Cook.

A judicious mother will so manage her daughters, that even at the early age of 13 they can, in an emergency, prepare "a meal of victuals." A thorough domestic training is very useful to a girl. At school, she always has a teacher or a fellow-pupil at hand to help her over hard places, but she is left to make a hash of bread herself, and attends to it from the time the sponge is set till the loaves are taken, sweet, and fragrant, golden-brown, from the oven, she learns menial chemistry, caloric, perseverance, delicate manipulation, self-reliance, neatness, and acquires skill and the habit of carrying her work in her mind, as one set of neglect or forgetfulness at any point of the process may spoil the whole.

A BRAVE WOMAN.

Says the St. John (New Brunswick) Gazette: As the picnic train was passing over the bridge, near the Five Mile House, a middle aged woman approach from the opposite direction. She was walking rapidly, and seemed to be unaware of the proximity of the train, until a whistle from the engineer aroused her to a sense of her danger. She was then but a short distance from the advancing train, and instead of throwing up her hands in despair or jumping off, as many would have done, she very deliberately lowered herself between the sleepers, and hung on with both hands until the train had passed on. When all danger was over she raised herself up again and resumed her journey as if nothing had happened.

A Flecky Girl.

One morning recently Miss Joie Howard was awakened by a noise, and saw a burglar in the room rifling the drawers of a bureau. The girl quietly bounded from her couch and seized a revolver which lay on the dressing table. Uttering an imprecation, the intruder ran into hallway, closely pursued by Miss Howard: Here he became confused, not knowing where the stairs were located, but before he could look around he was covered by the barrel of the revolver. Fearing that she would shoot him the burglar covered into a corner and there remained motionless until the girl's cries brought Policeman Hanley to her assistance.

On examining the room it was found that the window was broken open, the man having evidently climbed up from the street. The prisoner affected the sair of a drunken man and said he was on his way to visit a friend, but made a mistake in the house. He was taken to the Jefferson Market police court and held for trial in default of $1,000 bail.

Mormons in Idaho.

The rapid increase of the Mormon population of Idaho is a matter of serious moment to every citizen of the Territory. Seeing the fine opportunities for settlement which the rich valleys of Idaho offer, and being desirous of extending their influence in every available direction, the bishops and elders of the polygamous church of Latter-day Saints, are colonizing large tracts of land with a class of people, a large portion of whom are recruited, by paid agents of the church, from the lower classes of Europe; people naturally superstitious and easily led and controlled; just such people as the leaders of the Mormon church desire, for the reason that they can handle them in a manner to accomplish their own ends. In Bear Lake county, with a population of 5,237, there is scarcely a Republican vote polled. Why is this the case? Is it because these people are Democrats? Not at all.
They are not Democrats, neither are they Republicans, but they are Mormons, and as such are the declared enemies of the United States Government, and as the reins of government are now in the hands of the Republicans, can, per force, vote the Democratic ticket, and the reverse would soon be true, in case of a change of administration. In Oneida county fully one-half of the population is Mormon, and they are rapidly gaining a foothold in our sister county Cassia.

These are no fancy pictures, but stubborn facts, and if the Gentile portion of our population continue to kneel at the feet of this Delilah Mormonism she will soon have them bound as securely as in the case in Utah. To day they hold the balance of power, and both political parties pander to them for support. It is time for the voters of Idaho to awaken from their lethargy, and by uniting show to the world that it is not their desire to be ruled by a priest-ridden people. In this we do not wish to be understood as objecting to the Mormons on account of their peculiar religious belief, for every man has the undeniable right to worship God "according to the dictates of his own conscience," and there is perhaps as much holy writ in favor of a plurality of wives as, for a contrary belief. It is the centering of power in the hands of a few shrewd, unscrupulous men, men who rob their followers of their freedom, and who create their power only for evil, that we object to. The rank and file of the Mormon church are peaceable and industrious citizens, but they are bound in as abject slavery as were ever the negroes in the South. The leaders dictate and they dare not disobey, and George Q. Cannon and his like, remnants of another Territory, are framing laws for Idaho to help them.

Served Him Right.

A man always gets into a scrape when he pokes around among his wife's things without permission.
Mr. Durie, of Jersey City, had been annoyed by having his wife sell his old clothes to peddlers, and thought one day when a peddler called in her absence, that he would reciprocate: so he traded a lot of her old garments off for tinware and plaster imgans, and among other things a pair of half-worn corsets.

He rubbed his hands in silent enjoyment over the joke. But when his wife returned and was informed of the transaction she rushed up stairs to see what was gone, and not finding her corsets, exclaimed:

"John Henry, you didn't sell them corsets?"
"Oh yes!" he replied, "I found a disreputable old pair and let them go."

The wife burst into tears, and, between sobs, explained the $1,100 he had paid for the corsets.
He rubbed his hands in silent enjoy-
transaction she rushed up stairs to see
corsets, exclaimed:

Beautiful Your Homes.

Frank your homes tastefully as far as you can. Make them beautiful according to your own standard.
Not according to the prevailing style: Don't thrust all your beautiful things into some dark prison of a parlor where nobody can ever see them, but have them about you in the rooms that you inhabit, that they may be a perpetual charm to you in the present and linger with radiance and fragrance in the memories of all, long after the family group is scattered and the heartstone has grown old.

Reduction of Rates.

The Union Pacific Railroad company has caught the spirit of the Spanish railroad war and a general reduction has been made in passenger rates over the roads controlled by that company. It is a voluntary reduction on the part of the U. P. Company, and for that reason will be appreciated all the more. The rates in Nebraska have been reduced to four cents a mile. The former rate from Ogden to Omaha, $77.50 has been cut to $62. The rate from Ogden to Denver is cut from $55 to 45. From Ogden to Dillon, the rate has been reduced from $30.25 to $25, and from Ogden to Blackfoot, the rate is cut from $15.50 to $11.45.

Special Notice.

It is to be hoped that the increased travel following this reduction will induce the company to "cause a still further reduction, not only in passenger rates but also in freight charges.
There is no reason why the railroad and mining interests should not go hand and hand as they are certainly necessary to each other.

With fair living rates on iron, coke coal, machinery, ores and fuel our mining industry would be more active, and mines containing low grade ores in huge bodies could be profitably worked. Every ton of ore reduced west of the Rockies is a golden apple for the Union Pacific and all its branches.

An Indecent.

During last Winter a revival was in progress in one of the country churches near the city. Among the regular attendants on the meetings was a beautiful and estimable but rather unsophisticated young lady, whose friends were very anxious to have her united with the church. She seemed, however, reluctant to do so, and the minister in question was requested to "talk to her." This he did several times, on one occasion saying, in a jocular manner, "Miss M., if you will join the church I'll marry you," meaning he would perform the ceremony.
The girl seemed pleased with the proposition, and a few evenings after walked up to the altar and united with the church.

Some weeks after this, the minister preached at the church, and after the services met the young lady. "Brother so-and-so," said she, "you know you promised to marry me if I'd join the church. Are you going to do so?" "I don't want to wait any longer," the minister saw the dilemma, and attempted to explain. "I meant I would perform the ceremony," he said, "that's all. I want marry you myself, for I am already married, and love my wife too much to swap her off for another."

Little Jennie has a sister, a year married.

Last week this sister became the mother of a pretty babe.
"Look, mademoiselle," said the nurse, showing the new-born to its little aunt. "Isn't it the prettiest dolly you ever saw?" Jennie danced with delight. Then she approached to take it from the nurse's arms.
"A cry of disgust arose. "Och!" screamed Jennie, "it's nothing but a nest baby!"

When I was married I was eight- teen and my husband was thirty.

His age has since doubled, and so of course has mine. That makes me thirty-six. And she was astonished at her own frankness.

"Think of it," said a sunny little face with the innocent look of perfect belief, "my daddy has got the scoping hoff."

Has any paragraph ever returned to the Eve was only a side issue in the great human race!

We do not like to stir our delinquent subscribers, or others indebted to us, through the columns of our paper to pay up. But when needs, it is not mere a hint, but it is always the first and best call. All we wish to say is, that all knowing themselves indebted will please remit at once.

The Idaho Enterprise.

Published weekly by THE ENTERPRISE PUBLISHING COMPANY, corner of Main and Sprague streets, OGDEN, UTAH. THURSDAY, NOV. 11, 1880.

Winter is fast approaching. Court convenes next Monday. Judge Morgan moves into his new residence to-morrow. H. M. Bennett, returned from Ma. led on Saturday. Judge Crawford, and W. F. Fisher, visited Ogden on Saturday last. Mrs. James Anderson is going to build a new barn. Mr. Peck will do the carpenter work. Hercules & Phelps are just receiving loads of new goods of every kind and description. Farmers can now get anything that they may want in the line of Dry goods or groceries. Call upon them. H. O. Stewart has brought out the firm of J. H. Lingo dealer in dry goods at Cannon, and now controls the trade of that point. Fred Carter died on Tuesday near Market Lake, while on route to Salt Lake. He was famous for sometime before his death. The deceased had many friends in Salt Lake. W. W. Black of Cannon, and late candidate for the council on the Independent ticket died very suddenly at his home last Wednesday morning. We do not know the cause of his death. Miss Homer's school closed last Friday afternoon, with proper exercises, and a pleasant social time, & dance concluding the entertainment. The children all speak highly of the good qualities of their teacher and were sorry to have school close. This new hat, and it is stylish one presented to us by W. F. Fisher des as a result of the election in about the house last in those parts. A few more can be purchased at reasonable figure, by calling at the People's store where you will always find a large and well selected stock of all kinds of dry goods including election hats. Father Gooch presented us with a fine assortment of artichokes which we propose to try, and if not choked to death with them will report results. They are fine large vegetables any way. Dr. Carroll took his departure back to Washington to day, where a better opening for him offers. The Doctor is thoroughly skill in his profession and we believe would have succeeded in building up a large practice, in Southern Idaho if he had remained, but financially he could do better to return east, and we do not blame him for going. My he live long and prosper is our best wish. A storm of wind rain and followed by a slight fall of snow passed over Ogden on Monday last, and extended over the valley of Salt Lake, to a considerable distance south. It was a ferocious one of old winter. Prof. Gilbert geologist, and Prof. Thompson topographer of Prof. Wheeler's U. S. surveying expedition, came up from Ogden on Monday last, secured a team from Mr. Stout, and went out to Great Salt Valley to make some examination in regard to the great basin of Lake Bonneville. It is supposed that an outlet once existed for this Lake, near Fort Nez Paces or farther north of Soda Springs and that by the flow of lava from the volcano of Blackfoot, this Pass or outlet was dammed up, and an opening was found by way of Red Rock Pass near this city.

- LEMMI COUNTY ELECTION. We present below a statement of the Lemmi Co. vote for Congress and Legislature, showing a republican gain of one in the Territorial House of Representatives. FOR CONGRESS. Alanson Smith, (rep.) 643. Geo. Ainslie, (dem.) 509. FOR COUNCIL. Wm. Hyndman, (rep.) 474. W. F. Anderson, (dem.) 578. FOR REPRESENTATIVES. Jas. L. Oulardson, (rep.) 613. J. J. Gilson, (rep.) 569. A. J. McNab, (dem.) 495. A. Head, (dem.) 382.

FOR REPRESENTATIVES.

Our correspondent did not furnish us with the vote upon the county officers but reports that are deemed reliable state that the whole Republican ticket is elected. Judge Head has the entire sympathy of his warm friends down here, and tears of heart fell sorrow course down their furrowed cheeks. Many a heart is averted by this severe blow.

A Good Thing For Miners And Lawyers.

A seventh edition of that much prized book, COPP'S HAND-BOOK OF MINING LAW, will soon be out to contain the State and Territorial mining laws, and instruction how to examine title, in addition to the lists of Government patents, digest of decisions, and other good things in previous editions.

Its editor Henry N. Copp, of Washington D. C., has an extensive work on the same subject in press. It will give in full the land office and court decisions now in force, and be the authority on United States mining law without doubt.

Wasia County.

Returns from five precincts in Wasia county make it probable that the following candidates have been elected to fill the county offices. Councilman—Charles Cobb, Dem. Representative—R. L. Wood, Dem. Probate Judge—J. E. Harrison, Rep. Sheriff—J. E. Harrington, Rep. Auditor and Recorder—S. P. Weatherman, Dem. Treasurer—James Bascom, Dem. Surveyor—Frank Riblett, Rep. Assessor—T. M. Gray, Dem. County Commissioner—E. A. Jordan, Rep. C. M. Gray, Dem. Sidney Kilday, Rep. Coroner—M. F. Kossman, Dem.

The Result in Ada County.

The total vote of the county on Tuesday as shown by the vote for Sheriff was 1,146. The result was as follows:

For Delegate to Congress—Alanson Smith, Rep. 504; Geo. Ainslie, Dem. 642. For the Legislative Council—A. J. Borland, Rep. 430; R. Z. Johnson, Dem. 746. For Joint Councilman with Washington county—Thos. C. Galloway, Rep. 470; John Halley, Dem. 704. For the Assembly—John S. Gray, Rep. 567; D. W. Parnah, Rep. 567; Frank Gilbert, Rep. 523; W. C. Beasley, Rep. 510; J. Burnbach, Dem. 694; A. B. Calloway, Dem. 331; F. J. Parr, Dem. 638; I. H. Nichols, Dem. 593. For District Attorney—H. M. Bennett, Rep., 661; Willard Crawford, Dem. 474.—Statesman.

Ogden President.

At the hour of going to press the vote of this precinct is being canvassed. This action being the result of a stipulation entered into between H. M. Bennett esq., for the board, and Judge Higbee for W. F. Fisher, & others. On Tuesday a writ of mandamus was served upon the board and on Wednesday a hearing began before Chief Justice Morgan, and after the discussion of some legal points in the case, an agreement was entered into as stated above. No decision was given as to the legality of the action of the board in adjourning as they did.

We have determined to offer special inducements to all persons subscribing for the Enterprise for the balance of 1880 which includes up to June 1st, 1881. All persons subscribing now will get the Enterprise for 9 months for $2.00. To the old subscribers in advance on their subscription we offer the same terms provided they pay up the amount due already, and send $2 additional. To clubs of 25 or upwards, we will furnish two extra copies to get up of club. To clubs of 10 will give one extra copy to get up of club. Send in your orders at once.

introduces by its design a new style of organ.

Those who always take advantage of the good chance for making money that is offered, generally become wealthy, while those who do not improve such chances remain in poverty.

We want many such persons, here and there, to work for us, but for their own benefit. The business will pay more than ten times ordinary wages.

We furnish an extensive outfit and all that you need for the work.
