Arabi Pasha has 50,000 regulars, 80,000 militia and 60,000 Bedouins in his entrenchments, and 25,000 men in reserve as Mah-el-dwar.

Thomas G. Jones, of Kansas, has created a sensation there by marrying his grand-daughter. The groom is 65, while the bride is only 19.

The Idaho Avalanche has entered upon its eighteenth volume. It is one of the best papers in Idaho, and we congratulate it upon its success.

Through connections made last week at Colton, Cal., the Astorian, Tople and Santa Fe Railroad Company now control a through line the Pacific.

The Ketchum Keystone has changed owners, Chas. A. Foster and Geo. J. Lewis having purchased it of F. O. Haring. The new proprietors have made great improvements in the paper in every way, and the people of Ketchum and vicinity should give it good and substantial support.

Mr. Louis Mills and Miss Lucy of Brooklyn, visited Long Branch one day last week and were so charmed with the place that they missed the train that was to take them home, and to avoid general they were married that night. Their friends say it was a capital joke and cleverly arranged.

Leigh Smith, the English Arctic explorer, and his companions have been saved. They arrived at Alrebou in the steamer Hope on the 23rd inst.

The ship they sailed in, the Kila, was tipped in the ice August 21st, 1881, and sunk, and they had to take to an island near by in their boats.

They were in lack of captivated walrus and seals, and got through the winter in safety. In spring the steamer William Barrett sailed into the straits, and discovered them, and transferred them to the Hope.

"A poor, lone, Nebraska girl wants a true and affectionate husband—no farmers need apply," advertises a modest little daily prospecting for matrimonial croppings, Miss "R. B. D."

If you want a genuine, true-fixture, freemason-base, solid-between-walls and a non-oxidizing-let-seeing war a half—one that shows up bigger the more it is worked on, with only slight traces of sulphuric acid, we will put you on the track of one, that if worked on in economy, money and perseverance, will, in a short time, declare big dividends.—Idaho W. r. i.
